Development Services Director, Brian Binzer stated that now there was about $8,000 in unrestricted funds; however, $3,000 of these funds would be used for the Smith-Manning marker, which would leave about $5,000 unrestricted funds.

There are encumbered funds in the about of $10,000 that could be used toward other design guidelines projects and this amount could change if there are more additions to the Jaeger Contract.

Commissioner Frey made a motion to authorize the City to pursue new design guidelines for the Washington-Lawrence future historic district, seconded by Commissioner Paden.
